Lynchburg.—The open tobacco market here inaugurated its sales with offerings aggregating 18,500 pounds, the average price being $20 a hundred pounds. The quality of the offerings was said to be good.

* * *

Bristol. — Fire originating in the basement of a wholesale grocery destroyed the building and stock and spread to buildings and lumber stocks of a supply company, where much damage was done. The total damage is estimated at $100,000.

* * *

Alexandria. — Out of every thousand infants born here, 114 die, according to a survey made by a life insurance company. This rate is thirty-six higher than the average in eighty-two cities in this area. Most of them die when a few hours old.

* * *

Pulaski. — Pulaski's iron furnace is to be back in blast within thirty days. Percival Johnson, of Philadelphia, president of the Pulaski Iron Company, was here and ordered the furnace to be made ready for going in at the earliest possible date.

* * *

Frosting.—Presence of a bear in the foothills of the Cumberlands has given rise to considerable excitement and residents have organized to hunt brutin. Some parents are afraid to continue sending their children to school until the bear is captured.

* * *

Lynchburg.—The community chest campaign came to an end here with subscriptions aggregating $85,593, $9,000 short of the objective. The flying squadron, used during the campaign, will be kept intact in an effort to round out the $97,500 originally sought.

* * *

Fredericksburg. — While attempting to cross the Rapidan River near the bridge at Racon Ford, Sidney Harris, colored, in the employ of L. A. Rhoades, was drowned when his horse became entangled in a wire fence that had been washed down stream.

* * *

Fredericksburg.—Warsaw, in Westmoreland county, will be the 1926 meeting place of the Northern Neck Medical Society, it was decided at the closing session here last week of the 1924 convention. The meeting next year will be held in May. Approximately fifty physicians attended the sessions.

* * *

Roanoke.—Net income of the Norfolk and Western Railway Company last month was $1,656,305.90, according to the monthly statement of the company just made public, a gain of $266,416.16 over the net income for the preceding months, and of more than $100,000 over the net income of September, 1923.

* * *

Harrisonburg.—Dr. C. P. Richelberger, of Staunton, and M. S. Isbel, of Covington, were each fined $1,000 for violation of the narcotic act at the opening session of the United States District Court at the opening session here. Both pleaded guilty to the charges which had been pending for some time.

* * *

Alexandria. — Judge Samuel G. Brent, of the courts of the Sixteenth Judicial Circuit, has been elected president of the Alexandria National Bank to fill the unexpired term of the late Judge Charles E. Nicol. Judge Brent was vice-president of the bank. An estate valued at $150,000 was left by the late Judge Charles E. Nicol, who died without a will. His son and widow qualified as executor and executrix.

* * *

Smithfield.—"Eat Your Own Chickens" is the slogan adopted by at least one back-yard chicken raiser in Smithfield. Night after night members of her flourishing flock of Rhode Island Reds were meeting sudden and mysterious death. After some thought it was decided that the cats of the neighborhood were to blame for the dastardly. A "rabbit plug" was called into service. Three months' trapping in the town of Smithfield has reduced the cat population by ten. But the cats have been the small part of the haul. In addition to the cats the plug has caught seven sleek, fat opossums.

* * *

Danville.—The Tobacco Growers' Co-Operative Marketing Association has secured an injunction against Dr. W. T. Swanson, of Pittsylvania, from Judge Turner Clement. Dr. Swanson is charged with having sold at public auction, within the last two years, 15,000 pounds of tobacco. The injunction asks for damages at the rate of 5 cents per pound which, with counsel fees and costs brings the total to nearly $1,000. In addition he is enjoined from disposing of his tobacco through any other channel than the "pool" organization.

Powhatan Courthouse.—For the second time the case of the Commonwealth against Bruno, inflicted last summer for having a still on his farm, was tried in the Circuit Court and again the trial terminated in a hung jury. After hearing from the foreman that there was no possibility of an agreement, Judge Edwin P. Cox discharged the jury. Another effort to get a verdict will be made at the next term of the court.

Cape Charles.—What is said to be the largest egg ever grown on the Eastern Shore and possibly in the State, was hatched last week by Albert B. Somers, of Hopeton, Accomac county. The hog, which tipped the scales at 1,141½ pounds, after being dressed, was eight feet four inches long, and was the third large hog in as many years raised by Mr. Somers, their weights being respectively 925, 999 and 1141½. Total weight for the three was 3,065½ pounds.

* * *

Danville.—Norman Batchelor and Otis Jarrett had extraordinary escapes from death when, on crossing Banister field Bridge, which spans Dan River, their truck struck a hole in the plank flooring, wrenching off a tire. The machine swerved, plunged through the iron railing and leaped a distance of more than twenty feet to the sandy shore of the stream below. Both men escaped with contusions and bruises though the truck was practically demolished by the long drop.

* * *

Winchester.—Winchester Memorial Hospital has been placed on the standardized list of hospitals in the United States and Canada by the American College of Surgeons, according to information received here from headquarters of the association. The standardizing of the local hospital followed a seven-year survey, or inspection, at intervals. An inspection of the association's report disclosed no other hospital within a radius of seventy-five miles on the standardized list, the nearest being the King's Daughters' at Staunton, Va., and the City Hospital at Frederick, Md. Two Winchester men, Dr. P. W. Boyd and Dr. Hunter H. McGuire, are members of the American College of Surgeons.

* * *

Lynchburg.—Piedmont section of Virginia, according to a survey made by the marketing and production bureau of the Chamber of Commerce here, has received more money for its fruit crop this year than has been the case for some years. The peach crop proved to be an excellent one, and netted the growers good prices. The average price per crate was not as high as it has been in some years, when the crop was smaller, but this year the yield was large and the price was not complained of by growers who had good peaches. The apple crop has been more nearly sold from the orchards than usual, when the volume has been as large as it is this year.

* * *

Fredericksburg. — Clinching its claim to the title of the banner county of the State in production of seed corn, Spotsylvania County captured the bulk of the prizes in this department at the Petersburg Fair, winning all five first prizes in the five classes entered although competition was closer than at the Richmond State Fair. Besides the blue ribbons there were numerous other prizes won in both open and club classes by the Spotsylvania boys and girls. The members of Spotsylvania Agricultural Clubs won in the open and club classes at the Richmond and Petersburg Fairs; pride money totaling $888.75, which, with the $222 won at the Fredericksburg Fair, gives the boys and girls a total of $1,110.75.

Williamsburg. — The Phi Beta Kappa $108,000 building, to commemorate the founding of the fraternal society at William and Mary College in 1776, is expected to be under way at an early date and those in charge anticipate dedication in December, 1926. Dr. J. A. C. Chandler, president of the college, and Dr. R. M. Hughes, of Norfolk, have returned from New York where they attended a meeting to consider plans for the structure. A committee of five was named to further the project. Those on the committee are: Darwin P. Kingsley, New York; Dean Gildersleeve, of Barnard College; Albert Shaw, editor of Review of Reviews; Dr. Talcott Williams and Dr. Oscar Voorees, secretary of the United Chapters of Phi Beta Kappa. An auditorium seating 1,600, a reproduction of the Apollo room of the famous Raleigh Tavern of Colonial days and a vault for the records of the fraternity will be included in the structure. There will also be a number of guest rooms to accommodate visitors of the fraternity.

Lynchburg.—Lynchburg dairymen have formed a cow testing association as the result of efforts of Brice Anderson, county agent for Campbell County, and L. P. Summerick, dairy specialist of the Virginia experiment station at Blacksburg. The officers are: President, J. C. Adams; vice-president, T. N. Dennet; secretary-treasurer, Philip Dawson. W. A. Cocke has been secured as cow-tester for the association. A total of twenty herds, including 189 milk cows, have already been signed up for association membership.

Lesson for November 9

THE FEEDING OF THE FIVE THOUSAND

LESSON TEXT—John 6:1-15.
GOLDEN TEXT—I am the bread of life.—John 6:35.
PRIMARY TOPIC—Jesus Feeds Hungry People.
JUNIOR TOPIC—Jesus Feeds Five Thousand.
INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—Christ Meeting Human Needs.
YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—How Jesus Saves.

In the previous chapter, Jesus showed Himself to be the source of life. He here proves Himself to be the sustainer of life.

I. Jesus' Compassion for the Multitude (vv. 1-5, cf. Matt. 14:14). The sight of the crowd always incited the Lord's sympathy. He knew that they were as shepherdless sheep (Mark 6:34). They were going forth with no one to care for them. Besides, they were ignorant, so much so that they had no appreciation of Him. Added to this, was their awful physical hunger. This condition roused the Savior's pity. This is true of the multitude today. The crowd surges about us daily as shepherdless sheep. There we go to our neighbors. Then, too, they are ignorant. Sin has so thoroughly blinded them that they are not conscious of their lost condition. Down deep in their hearts is a hunger for truth and God. The millions of earth are hungering for Christ, though ignorant of their real needs.

II. The Lord's Conference With the Disciples Touching the People's Need (5-9).

This was not done for His benefit, for He knew what He would do (v. 6). He is equal to any occasion. His object was to develop faith in the disciples. Then, too, the great shepherdless multitudes need to be taught the wonderful truth that God has made man His partner in the salvation of the world. We are workers together with God (II Cor. 6:1). It is a most solemn obligation to cooperate with Him in saving the millions who are groping in darkness.

2. To teach them their true helplessness in the face of such great needs. The loaves and fishes were as nothing in the presence of five thousand men besides women and children. Well might Andrew exclaim, "What are these among so many?" We may plant, and water, but the increase comes entirely from God.

3. To teach them that their sufficiency is from the Lord. The mission workers needs to know that Christ is the only source of supply. Without Him we can do nothing (John 15:1-5). We can no more carry on the work ourselves than the branch can bear fruit without the vine. The branch supplies the life and strength for the production of fruit. Fruitless activity is of no use in the face of such need. The Lord Jesus has all power.

III. The Lord's Method of Accomplishing His Work (vv. 10-13).

We observe here the orderliness of Christ's work. He pauses to give thanks for their scanty supply, teaching us that we should always bring our abilities and gifts to God, that He might bless them to His use.

1. The Lord's part was to bless and break the bread; you, even to create the needed supply. This part the disciples could not perform. The Lord must begin the work. The same kind of bread was provided for all, rich and poor, young and old, women and children.

2. The disciples' part was to distribute that which He had blessed and consecrated. This is true of the missionary today. His part is to take from the hands of the Lord that which He has blessed and consecrated, and distribute it among the starving multitudes. We are not responsible for the supply; but we are responsible for its distribution to all those who are hungering and perishing for the bread of life.

3. The people's part was to sit down and eat. They had no part in the provision, neither its distribution; but only to take from the hands of the disciples and eat. This is an illustration of the part obedience plays in our salvation.—"When all sat down to the full, much was left," illustrating the superabundance of Christ's salvation.

IV. The Effect (v. 14).

The people recognized Him at once as the Prophet who should come. They believed Him for His works' sake.

"Would be foolish to tell a modern wingwad to go to the pot. Instead of declaring the lady's tongue he would try to talk the whole colony into going on a strike.—Toledo Blade.

HIXBURG

The ladies under the auspices of the Parent Teacher's Association, served lunch at Hixburg school on election day for the benefit of the school. They made $8.64 from the lunch counter, also took in twelve new members this making a total of twenty-five members. With the help of the State and School Board we now have in hand money enough to purchase a $40 library. We will have our regular monthly meeting at the school house, Friday November 14th, every member is urged to be present. I trust that our organization will do great things for our school and community.

Miss Louise Vaughan visited her home folks this week-end.

We are very sorry to note that Mr. Floyd Gilliam is quite sick.

Mrs. J. H. McCue and nephew, Dabney Swan, were visitors in the home of J. B. Wilson Thursday night.

Mrs. E. P. Sears and daughters were visitors in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Morton Marshall recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Engy Gilliam of Lynchburg, were guests in the home of Mr. Thornton Marshall this week.

We were very sorry to hear that little Gladys Coleman is very ill of pneumonia.

James E. Gray of Richmond, spent the week-end with his mother, Mrs. J. W. Davis, of this place and we will also say that "Jim" was accompanied by two fine looking youngsters, Willie and James Jr.

Miss Rosa L. Fore who is teaching in Richmond, spent the week-end with her home folks in company with her friend, Mr. Pleasant, who is also of Richmond.

Mrs. J. H. McCue is attending the Baptist General Association at Bluefield, W. Va. Mr. McCue accompanied his wife to his old home town.

Now, Mr. Editor, some of our Hixburg readers rather wondered how it was that you left out mention of the Co-ops speaking at our local tobacco market "Pamplin" as our apportionment of the disbursement was over $92,000 on a 30 per cent basis, may we ask that you kindly announce to us the next speaking.

We hear the roar of many gunshots even tho the season has not opened and we are surprised at how little regard people have for the hunting law.

G. R. Brown, special agent for the Banker's Life Insurance Co. is working this end of the county this week, making head quarters at the home of W. A. Swan.

Our farmers are busy husking corn and the warm season has caused the wheat to grow very rapidly even the twas rather late when seeded.

Some inquiries for pigs in this part of the county.

Wilson Hix has builded a rat-proof corn crib.

W. A. Swan and S. P. Harvey will in the near future have a warehouse and carry a full line of fertilizers at Pamplin at all times, which will be a great convenience to the farmers since the V. C. Co. have discontinued to deliver from their warehouse.

L. H. McCue is having installed in his home a running water platt and other improvements.

Mr. Editor I got several orders for seed potato onion sets from the advt. in your paper. Several orders came over two hundred miles, saying that they saw the ad in the Times.

Sallie and Kate Marshall are staying with Miss Magg Hix while their mother is at the hospital and we are glad to state that Mrs. Marshall expects to be home soon.

Miss Ruth Swan returned to Lynchburg College Tuesday after spending several days at home.

Mr. Ed McPhillips is feeling better and getting about some, but is not quite himself yet.

The Misses Davidson of near Hebron, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. N. R. Featherston, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Marshall Sunday.

Bailey Special has changed its name so I hear.

FOREST VIEW

Good morning! I feel sooo in the air, but do hope our good weather will continue a little longer so our roads will keep in traveling condition.

Hallowe'en passed off quietly around here. Misses Maggie Nash, Bernice Ford, Jim Bob Ford and Nellie Jones attended a Hall party in Lynchburg on Saturday night and reported a good time.

Our community, church and social meetings have been saddened by the death of our dear friend Mrs. Ida Belle Ferguson, who was a great sufferer. She was laid to rest in Central cemetery, October 28th. A host of friends and relatives were present to pay the last tribute of respect to this good lady. All the children were present. The funeral services were conducted by the pastor, Rev. Burnett, assisted by Rev. Thomas, of Red House. The grave was covered with beautiful flowers. Our sympathy goes out to the bereaved family.

Our T. G. C. A. Local meets at Petty's Fork twice a month and a program for once a month is given and all the members take an active part with a running over house attendance. We are not ashamed of our Local, but boast of one of the best in the state. All the members seem to be so loyal. Our last program represented Hallowe'en. We will have a program for Armistice also Thanksgiving.

There were many from this neighborhood who attended the mass-meeting at Appomattox last Saturday and heard the good speeches made by several good speakers on the subject of Co-Operation. They also received a payment on their 1923 tobacco crop, which came in so nice.

Miss Frances Ford entertained a number of young people Saturday night in honor of her guests who accompanied her home from Appomattox for the week-end.

We are glad Mrs. Fetna Marshall was able to take a little trip and spend the day with her son, N. D Marshall and family, one of those pretty days last week.

STONEWALL

Miss Nellie Anderson spent the week-end in Lynchburg.

Misses Gills and Bailey of our High School faculty spent the week-end at their homes.

Mr. and Mrs. Clayton T. Drinkard and Clayton, Jr., were business visitors in Appomattox Saturday.

Mrs. Florence Carson and Miss Bessie Zimmerman of Appomattox were week-end visitors in the home of E. H. Carson.

S. E. Anderson entertained quite a number of his friends at a "corn shucking" Monday.

Miss Lizzie Rice left for Richmond Wednesday, after a visit in the home of S. E. Anderson for several weeks.

Stonewall seems to be very noted for fowl. For hunters are frequently heard around here. A party of men are camping here and having some lively chases.

The Co-ops were all smiles Saturday—second payment. Some of our Co-ops had to go to Lynchburg and some to Appomattox.

Rev. Redding will preach at Stonewall church 4th Sunday A. M., and 2nd Sunday afternoons. Everybody invited.

Harmony

Boys and girls agricultural club will meet at Harmony school Wednesday 19th, at 3 o'clock. Our school room looks much more pleasant since our new window shades have been put up.

There will be an oyster supper at Harmony school house Thursday evening, November 27th, beginning at 5 o'clock. Will also have pies and sandwiches, free entertainment and good music. Every body come.

Severe Pains in Side

"I HAD had quite a bad spell and sickness," writes Mrs. Emma Patrick, of Caney, Ky., "and it was an effort for me to go about my home. I had a very severe pain in my left side that almost took my breath at times. I lost my appetite. I grew thin, pale and lifeless. I fell off till I only weighed about 116 pounds.

"Cardui was recommended to me and by the time I had taken one bottle I saw it was what I needed. I ate more and rested better. I kept taking it and my skin and flesh took on a more healthy color. I felt stronger and, as the nervousness left me, the pain in my side was less severe. After taking nine bottles, I eat anything, go anywhere and feel fine. I weigh 160 pounds and am well. I feel that I owe it all to having used Cardui."

Pain, in certain parts of the body, is a sure indication of female complications. The treatment needed is not the use of narcotic drugs, but—
